

NON-VERBAL COMMUNICATION

Course Coordinator: Syeda
Beena Bukhari

NON-VERBAL COMMUNICATION

- Conveying information without words
- The use of gestures, tone of voice, facial expressions, body posture, handshakes, hairstyles and another cues to send a message
- % impact = 4 times of verbal communication
- 80% involve actions and gestures v/s 20% involve usage of words

ELEMENTS

1. Facial expressions
2. Gestures
3. Paralinguistics (such as loudness, tone of voice, inflection)
4. Body language and Posture
5. Proxemics or personal space
6. Eye gaze
7. Haptics (touch)
8. Appearance
9. Artifacts (objects, images, uniform)

THE POWER OF PAUSES- PAUSES CAN MAKE OR BREAK A CONVERSATION

Do's

- To convey ideas persuasively
- Help audience to understand you
- Help convey emotion
- Control the overall pace of your talk
- Healthy
- Help engage your audience
- Replace filler words
- Let your mind catch up to your mouth

Don'ts

- Audience struggles to comprehend
- Weakens credibility
- Don't be too spontaneous
- Don't focus much on visual aids
- Avoid fidgeting and pacing

VIDEO