

Presentation: Life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)

Assalamualaikum and good morning everyone,

Today, I will talk about the life of the Holy Prophet Muhammad — Peace Be Upon Him — the importance of his life for a Muslim, and the key lessons we learn from his Makki life.

The Prophet Muhammad — Peace Be Upon Him — was born in the year 570 CE in Makkah. He belonged to the noble tribe of Quraysh, and was known by the titles Al-Amin and As-Sadiq, because of his truthfulness and honesty. At the age of 40, he received the first revelation from Allah in the Cave of Hira. That moment marked the beginning of his Prophethood. His life is generally divided into two main periods: the Makki period, which lasted 13 years in Makkah, and the Madani period, which lasted 10 years in Madinah.

For every Muslim, the Prophet's life is the best example to follow. Allah says in the Quran, in Surah Al-Ahzab, verse 21: "Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah, you have an excellent example." His teachings guide us in all aspects of life — whether it is worship, relationships, dealing with hardship, or leading a community. His character, his leadership, his patience, and his trust in Allah make him the perfect role model for every generation.

From his Makki life, we learn powerful lessons of patience, faith, and determination. During this time, the Prophet — Peace Be Upon Him — faced many challenges. He and his followers were mocked, boycotted, tortured, and even threatened with death. But he never gave up on preaching the message of Islam. His preaching was full of wisdom and kindness. He showed great patience, even in the most difficult situations. He never responded with hate, and his trust in Allah remained strong at all times.

He also believed in strategic thinking, and built strong relationships with people from other tribes, which helped the spread of Islam. Finally, when the situation became unbearable, he migrated to Madinah. This Hijrah, or migration, was a turning point in Islamic history, and the beginning of a new chapter.

In conclusion, the life of the Holy Prophet — Peace Be Upon Him — teaches us how to live with faith, patience, and purpose. His Makki life, in particular, is a great example of how to remain steadfast in the face of hardship. May Allah help us to follow his Sunnah, and implement his teachings in our daily lives. Ameen.

Thank you!
