What Is Islamic Culture and Civilization?

It is the way Muslims live, based on the Quran and the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

It includes beliefs, values, traditions, and daily practices.

It connects religion with knowledge and human development.

1. Faith-Based Foundation

Based on Tawheed - belief in one God (Allah). Follows the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him). Guides Muslims in all parts of life: worship, work, family, and community.

2. Universal Values

- Teaches justice, kindness, and equality.
- Respects all people, no matter their race or background.
- Encourages helping others and living peacefully.

3. Knowledge and Education

- Islam encourages learning and seeking knowledge.
- Muslim scholars made big contributions in science, medicine, and math.
- Example: The House of Wisdom in Baghdad was a center for learning.

Examples of Muslim Scholars

- Al-Khwarizmi: Father of Algebra; introduced Arabic numerals.
- Ibn Sina (Avicenna): Wrote "The Canon of Medicine," a key medical book.
- Ibn al-Haytham: Studied light and vision; known as the father of optics.

4. Moral and Ethical Code

- Teaches honesty, modesty, and humility.
- Encourages good behavior in personal and social life.
- Promotes fairness and responsibility.

5. Social Structure

- Family is very important in Islam.
- Everyone has rights and duties.
- Leaders should be just and care for the people.

6. Art and Architecture

- Islamic art includes beautiful calligraphy and patterns.
- Mosques have unique designs with domes and minarets.
- Famous buildings: Alhambra in Spain, Blue Mosque in Turkey.

7. Unity in Diversity

- Islamic civilization includes many cultures and languages.
- Despite differences, Muslims are united by their faith.
- This unity brings strength and harmony.

Importance of Islamic Culture and Civilization

- Shows how to live a balanced life: spiritually and materially.
- Encourages peace, respect, and cooperation.
- Reminds us of Muslims' contributions to the world.

What is an Islamic Society?

- A community where people live according to Islamic teachings.
- Based on the Quran and the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).
- Focuses on faith, good behavior, justice, and helping each other.

Importance of Education in Islam

- Islam encourages everyone to seek knowledge.
- Learning helps us understand our religion and the world.
- Both men and women are encouraged to learn.

Quran Says:

“Read in the name of your Lord who created.”

(Surah Al-‘Alaq, 96:1)

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

“Seeking knowledge is an obligation upon every Muslim.”

(Sunan Ibn Majah)

Status of Women in Islam

- Women have rights to education, property, and inheritance.
- They are respected as daughters, wives, and mothers.

Quran Says:

“And for women is a share of what the parents and close relatives leave...”

(Surah An-Nisa, 4:7)

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

“The best of you are those who are best to their women.”

(Sunan At-Tirmidhi)

Generosity and Helping Others

- Islam teaches us to be generous and help those in need.
- Sharing wealth brings blessings and helps society.

Quran Says:

“And spend in the way of Allah...”

(Surah Al-Baqarah, 2:195)

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

“The upper hand (giver) is better than the lower hand (receiver).”

(Sahih Bukhari)

Rights of Parents

- Parents deserve love, respect, and care.
- Obeying and helping parents is a way to please Allah.

Quran Says:

“Be grateful to Me and to your parents...”

(Surah Luqman, 31:14)

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

“The pleasure of the Lord is in the pleasure of the father...”

(Sunan At-Tirmidhi)

Rights of Teachers

- Teachers guide us and deserve respect.
- Listening and being thankful to teachers is important.

Quran Says:

“Ask those who possess knowledge if you do not know.”
(Surah An-Nahl, 16:43)

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

“He is not of us who does not show respect to our elders, mercy to our young, and honor our scholars.”
(Sunan Abu Dawood)

Rights of Neighbors

- Treat neighbors with kindness and respect.
- Help them in times of need and avoid harming them.

Quran Says:

“Worship Allah... and to parents do good, and to relatives, orphans, the needy, the near neighbor, the neighbor farther away...”

(Surah An-Nisa, 4:36)

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

“He is not a believer whose neighbor is not safe from his harm.”

(Sahih Bukhari)

Rights of Spouses

- Husbands and wives should love and care for each other.
- Marriage is based on mutual respect and kindness.

Quran Says:

“And of His signs is that He created for you from yourselves mates that you may find tranquility in them...”

(Surah Ar-Rum, 30:21)

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

“The best of you is the one who is best to his wife.”

(Sunan At-Tirmidhi)
